

To Kodak Aktiengesellschaft
Stuttgart, Wangen
Hedelfinger Strasse 56-22

Date March 15, 1956

For

Ship To Eastman Kodak Company, Camera Works
333 State Street
Rochester, New York

Customer
Order No. Z-1170

Ship Via best way

Charge CW Job Order 51990

Quantity	ARTICLE
	Design and build one SIS Recording Machine. This order does not include design, fabrication or installation of electrical controls. Price: <input data-bbox="1104 693 1242 745" type="text"/> STAT One head assembly should be taken from Distribution Center Order #20952 and modified for use on above recording machine. These units are to be provided f.o.b. Stuttgart, Germany, at the firm fixed price, indicated above, in accordance with Kodak A.G., quotation dated January 30, 1956. In addition to the price stipulated above, Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, New York, shall reimburse Kodak A.G. for the cost of inland freight between Stuttgart, Germany, and the port of embarkation. Overseas freight, insurance, service fees for entry, U.S. Customs duty, and inland transportation between the United States port of entry and Rochester, New York, shall be paid directly by Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, New York. All of the special charges enumerated in this paragraph shall be considered as procurement costs in addition to the fixed price quoted by Kodak A.G. This unit must have a permanent marking "Made in Western Germany" located in a conspicuous place. Delivery to be made on June 30, 1956 25X1A

By _____

ILLEGIB

Approved For Release 2002/06/13 : CIA-RDP81B00878R000800120013-2

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2002/06/13 : CIA-RDP81B00878R000800120013-2